The petitioner asks this Court to consider the decision of the California Supreme Court and to adopt the reasoning therein.

Neither the respondent nor the Appellate Division can assign any sufficient reason for the continuation of the punishment of the petitioner who, during the past fifteen years, established, by his course of conduct, that he presently possesses the requisite character and fitness for his readmission to the practice of law; and, the continuation of this punishment, especially where others similarly situated who have committed much more heinous offenses, have been reinstated, constitutes cruel and unusual punishment.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a Writ of Certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

PHILIP P. VITELLO
Attorney for Petitioner
